COOPERATION OF SCHOOL PERSONNEL

Contact with parents by working together in parent conferences and social gatherings provides school personnel opportunities for gaining friendly and intellectual cooperation from those most interested in schools, and for sampling public opinion.

Principals and teachers are expected to assist parents in organizing strong, active, parent groups and in channeling their energies toward programs mutually beneficial to the Fremont Public schools and the community.

Adopted: November 9, 1987

Reviewed: July 13, 1998