PARTICIPATION IN COMMUNITY LIFE

Members of the professional staff shall be encouraged to take an active part in the affairs of Fremont. The extent to which teaches are known and accepted as citizens of the community has a direct relationship with the degree of understanding and good will flowing from the community to the schools.

The Superintendent especially is urged to identify himself personally with many facets of community life, providing opportunities for all citizens, including non-parents, to experience a relationship with the schools.

Adopted: November 9, 1987

Reviewed: July 13, 1998