TITLE I ADVISORY COMMITTEE

The advisory group, composed of parents and teachers of the children being served, is interested in compensatory instructional services and programs for the educationally deprived child. It studies issues, analyzes facts, makes suggestions, and solicits information from many audiences to raise the level of educational aspiration of children.

Adopted: November 9, 1987

Revised: July 13, 1998