

SENIOR INFORMATION & SCHOLARSHIPS

COLLEGE BOUND NEBRASKA PROGRAM

If you are a Nebraska resident who meets admission requirements for the University of Nebraska, and if you are eligible for the Federal Pell Grant, you can attend the University of Nebraska and pay NO tuition. This fall, the program has been expanded to cover students who are just beyond PELL eligibility – eligibility varies depending upon a number of factors, as a general rule a student from a typical family of four with one child going to college, having a family income of $50,000 or less, will meet the guidelines for Collegebound Nebraska funding. There is no scholarship application beyond the FAFSA form. Visit www.collegeboundnebraska.com, for information.

Nebraska State College System Programs

NCSC Advantage – This program guarantees that first-time freshmen who receive federal Pell grants will pay no tuition at one of the state colleges. Applicants must be a Nebraska resident, a Federal Pell Grant recipient and a first-time freshman. Apply online at: www.nscs.edu Click on the STUDENTS button and then NSCS Advantage. Priority deadline is June 1.

TIPS TO INCREASE YOUR CHANCES OF EARNING SCHOLARSHIPS (Provided by EducationQuest)

- Don't pay for scholarship searches. Use free search sites including ScholarshipQuest at www.educationquest.org with over 1800 state and local awards.
- Visit the counseling office weekly for information about scholarships.
- Get organized. Place scholarship applications in deadline order and prioritize each award. Local and college-specific scholarships deserve top priority because you're more likely to earn them.
- Continually update your activities, honors and volunteer or paid jobs using the Activities Resume at www.educationquest.org
- Earn the best possible ACT/SAT scores.
- Use quality references such as a teacher, coach or counselor. Encourage them to write specific examples of your leadership skills. Give them advance notice and a specific deadline.
- Get an early start on essays. Describe your interests, hopes for the future, and leadership abilities – but be sure to tailor your essay to the scholarship topic.
- Pay close attention to grammar, spelling and neatness. Ask at least two people to proofread your application.
